

From the Chellaston Residents' Association

HELLASTON-IN-BLOOM IS TAKING SHAPE !

We hope you will have noticed that the beds and planters on High Street and Derby Road have been planted up after a lot of hard work by the Chellaston Action Group and the 2nd Chellaston Brownies. Once the plants have become established, we think there will be a great display for the judges from East Midlands-in-Bloom who will be visiting in July or August.

Many thanks to all the volunteers and also to those businesses who have helped with sponsorship and assistance, including George Simnett Funerals, Potter's Mini-Skips, No. 61 Gifts and Swarkestone Nursery. The project is also receiving funds from the CRA's "100-Club", a monthly draw – please contact us if you would like to subscribe to this.

SPIRIT OF CHELLASTON

Don't forget that the annual Spirit of Chellaston event will take place on June 15th from mid-day onwards on the recreation field behind the Community Centre. This year there are more stalls than ever and should be a great afternoon for everyone!
